PETER EGGERS DEAD.

Well Known Umatilla County Farmer Passed Away Suddenly in Illinois. John Schmidt yesterday evening received a message announcing the sudden death of Peter F. Eggers, Mrs. Schmidt's father, at Sibley, Ill. Mr. Eggers left here two months ago for Illinois, for several months' visit and Mr. Schmidt received a letter from him 10 days ago, in which he stated that he was enjoying his visit and expected to remain for several months yet. His son, Peter Eggers, accompanied him, and will bring the remains home, expecting to arrive here next Monday.

Mr. Eggers was a well known farmer of the Cold Springs district, coming from Germany to Umatilla county 15 years ago. He was industrious and frugal and has become well to do in the few years residence in this county. His wife died at the Cold Springs home on May 1, just eight months to a day, before her husband's sudden death yesterday. Six children survive him, as follows: Mrs. John Schmidt of this city, Mrs. Andrew Leisinger, three miles north of Helix; Mrs. Rudolph, of Sibley, Ill., whom Mr. Eggers was visiting at the time of his death; Peter, William and John Eggers, all of Umatilla county.

The remains will be taken to the Schmidt residence in this city on arrival, but no funeral arrangements will be made until the body arrives. Mr. Eggers was 62 years of age, and came direct from Germany to Umatilla county, 15 years ago.

COURT AT HEPPNER.

Horse Stealing Case Will Be Appealed—Creswell Held for Trial.

Ben K. Davis, who has been acting as court reporter during the session of the state circuit court just adjourned at Heppner, returned home last evening, accompanied by Mrs. Davis. The term of court at Heppner was an interesting one.

"The horse stealing case in which A. H. Rae and Charles Matteson were convicted of larceny of two horses belonging to W. E. Royce," said Mr. Davis, "was strongly fought and will be appealed to the supreme court. Nearly 50 witnesses were examined by the prosecution and the defense, but the state won, and the defendants were sentenced to three years each in the penitentiary. District Attorney G. W. Phelps and Judges James A. Fee conducted the prosecution. Judge S. A. Bennett of The Dalles, represented the accused.

"The case growing out of the killing of Frank Natter will be tried at the next term of court. Dee Matlock was acquitted at the preliminary examination, and C. E. Creswell is held on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon." Circuit Judge W. R. Ellis will return home from Heppner this afternoon.

SIXTH BOWLING GAME.

Total	2166

The standing of the various teams is now as follows:

Shamrocks 2166

Stars 2093

Rough Rollers 2091

Defenders 2049

The next game of the series will be played between the Rough Rollers and the Shamrocks, next Monday night.

Presbyterian Evangelist Coming.

Rev. J. P. Calhoun, one of the most successful field evangelists in the Presbyterian church, now conducting a series of meetings in Tacoma, will be in Pendleton on next Thursday and Friday nights, to arrange for an evangelistic meeting to be held in this city later. Mr. Calhoun will preach two nights while here. He has recently held successful meetings in Portland, and is constantly engaged in missionary work.

For Members and Families.

The memorial services of the Pendleton lodge of Elks, that will be held Sunday afternoon at Secret Society hall, are for members of the order and their families. A large attendance is expected.

Trustee in Bankruptcy.

The creditors of Robert D. Porter, bankrupt, met this morning before Thomas Fitz Gerald, referee in bankruptcy, for the purpose of appointing a trustee.

Wanted—The address of some breeder of Jersey cattle near Pendleton, who has young stock for sale at reasonable prices. Address, J. J. QUINN, Pendleton, Oregon.

Idaho women have shown their interest in the Lewis and Clark centennial by voting to move $1000 worth of fine furniture, purchased by the federation of women's clubs, from the Idaho building at the St. Louis fair, to Portland. In case Idaho should not have a building at the centennial, they will offer the furniture for use in the general reception rooms set aside for women in the Oregon building.

IMPROVES WITH AGE.

Next Play at the Fraser is Comedy Pure and Simple.

Pathos mingled with comedy, a quaint old story of love and the goodness and baseness of man, is told in "Shore Acres." The play itself is old but like good liquor, it appears to improve with age, and at each retelling it sounds prettier than ever. A large audience witnessed "Shore Acres" at the Fraser last night.

The next attraction will be "Who's Brown?" which comes Monday. This play is a comedy, pure and simple, built to cause merriment. Those who wish to retain their fit of the blues or be alone with their sorrows, should not attend "Who's Brown?"

La Grande Against Cruelty.

A campaign against cruelty to animals has been started in La Grande. Farmers and ranch hands are in the habit of hitching teams and saddle horses to the racks and allowing them to stand until late in the night. Hereafter, an official will look out for cases of this kind and either cause the owner to feed the teams and saddle horses, or else to take charge of them for the city and feed them at the owner's expense.

Helix is Prosperous.

J. S. Norvel, who recently purchased the mercantile business of Sones & Walker at Helix, returned from Portland this morning, where he has been on business for a few days. He has ordered a complete stock of furniture for his business at Helix, and will add other features to his business in the near future. Mr. Norvel is well pleased with Helix and believes that it has a promising future.

Suit on Promissory Note.

George W. Proebstel of Weston, has brought action in the state circuit court against John O. Moorehouse and R. M. Powers, as administrators of the estate of Thomas Moorehouse, deceased, to collect the sum of $416.75, alleged to be due on certain promissory notes. Stillman & Pierce are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Suit for Divorce.

Margaret Forsythe has brought suit in the state circuit court for a divorce from Douglas Forsythe on the grounds of gross drunkenness and failure to provide. The couple were married in Walla Walla May 8, 1900. Mrs. Forsythe desires to resume her former name of Margaret Manker.

Five Plain Drunks.

Five persons appeared in the prisoners' dock at police court this morning. Drunkenness was the charge preferred against each one, and they all pleaded guilty and were sentenced to three days in jail. They are H. Keefer, Oscar King, John Wilson, Victor Reynolds and William, a Yakima Indian.

Finger Torn in a Bicycle.

Bush Swart, the little son of O. R. & N. Agent H. W. Swart, at Bingham Springs, had one of his fingers badly lacerated in a bicycle chain a few days ago and was brought down for medical attendance today. Dr. Smith attended to the finger and thinks it can be saved.

DREAD OF HUMANITY

I am compelled by a sense of gratitude to tell you the great good your remedy has done me in a case of Contagious Blood Poison. Among other symptoms I was severely afflicted with Rheumatism, and got almost past going. The disease got a firm hold upon my system; my blood was thoroughly poisoned with the virus. I lost in weight, was run down, had sore throat, eruptions, spots and other evidences of the disease. I was truly in a bad shape when I began the use of S. S. S., but the persistent use of it brought me out of my trouble safe and sound, and I have the courage to publicly testify to the virtues of your great blood remedy, S. S. S., and to recommend it to all blood-poison sufferers, sincerely believing if it is taken according to directions, and given a fair trial, it will thoroughly eliminate every particle of the virus. JAMES CURRAN, Stark Hotel, Greensburg, Pa.

Painful swellings in the groins, red eruptions upon the skin, sores in the mouth and loss of hair and eyebrows, are some of the symptoms of this vile disease. S. S. S. is an antidote for the awful virus that attacks and destroys even the bones. S. S. S. contains no Mercury, Potash or other mineral ingredient. We offer $1.00 for proof that it is not absolutely vegetable. Home treatment book giving the symptoms and other interesting and valuable information about this disease, mailed free. Our physicians advise free those who write us.
